WELCOME

In the 1800s, a 30-year-old man named Russell Carter, battled a severe health crisis that brought him to his knees. His doctors said there was nothing more they could do. So Mr. Carter turned to God for help, hope and healing. Ironically, he had written a song, years before, that became his theme song. Maybe it should be yours, too! Here are a couple of lines from that song Mr. Carter wrote: "Standing on the promises I cannot fall, Listening every moment to the Spirit's call. Resting in my Savior as my all in all. Standing on the promises of God." Russell Carter lived 49 more years and died at the age of 79, still standing on the promises of God. David Jeremiah said "there are specific promises in the Bible to meet every condition and contingency in life". For example there's a promise that says our needs will be met (Phil. 4:19) A promise God's Grace will be given (2 Cor. 12:9) A promise God will always be with us (Heb. 13:5) etc. When you think about it the only firm thing to stand on in this shaky world are the promises of God. I hope that's where you're standing. Welcome to HCC.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EACH SUNDAY & WEDNESDAY

Join each Sunday and Wednesday evenings as we explore the reality of "Living in a Pagan World". On Sunday evenings we'll primarily dive into our response and responsibility living in a pagan world. On Wednesday evenings we'll talk about our ethical responsibilities while everything and everyone around us say there are no absolutes or standards. So join us each Sunday and Wednesday evening, we're just getting started.

LADIES CIRCLE

The Ladies Circle scheduled for this Monday has been postponed. Be watching for updates.

SOUP SUPPER
