
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Each of us here today can be thankful for the fact the Lord by His Spirit has enabled us to understand his truth (I Cor. 2:14-16). Yet as profound and powerful as God's truth is, people still reject it, neglect it, redefine it, and oppose it. Some, like Pilate, cynically deny that truth even exists or that it can be known by men (John 18:38). Others foolishly think that denying truth will somehow make it go away. You may have heard some folk say, "Jesus may be true (right) for you but that doesn't mean He has to be true (right) for me." That view assumes that belief somehow determines truth. But just the opposite is the case. Truth determines the validity (or truth) of one's belief. Believing a lie doesn't make it true. In fact, failing to believe the truth doesn't make it a lie. The gospel is true because Jesus is true, not simply because Christians believe in Him. His resurrection proved the truth of His claims and constitutes the objective basis of our faith (Rom. 1:4; 1 Pet. 1:3). You & I enter this day armed with the message of truth and empowered by the Spirit of truth. Truth is your protection and strength (Eph. 6:14). Lost souls desperately need to hear that truth. Represent it well and proclaim it with boldness. (Welcome to H.C.C.)
