

Holy, Holy, Holy,

the whole earth is

His Glory!

WELCOME 4-30-2023

Have you ever had one of those days or even weeks where you just say shew I'm glad it is over? I think if we are honest we have. Have you ever wondered what caused them? The short answer "Yes" we have. When those days or weeks come we don't always get any warning to the fact they are about to arise, in fact we most always are surprised. Can I ask one more question? Did it surprise God? Did it catch God off-guard? There is an interesting portion of scripture found in Psalm 139 that answers that question. He begins by saying God has searched us and in our coming and in our goings he is acquainted with every moment. In other words He's not surprised. David says we can never be out of his presence. If we ascend to heaven he is there, if we fall to the grave he is there, if we dwell David says in most remote part of our world he is still there. In those places and every other place he is there leading. Even the darkness is no match for our God. To be blunt from conception to our very last day God ordained every last one of them. No surprises! What is David's advice? Ask God to "search" our hearts and make sure nothing would hinder his leadership so we can be led in the "Everlasting Way" So No Surprises ever arise! Welcome to H.C.C.
