WELCOME

"If anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was" (James 1:23-24). Always respond immediately to what you know to be God's will for you. Men, have you ever been at work and touched your face, only to realize that you forgot to shave?

Ladies, have you ever been out in public and suddenly realized that you forgot to apply some of your makeup? Those are common occurrences that illustrate what it means to hear God's Word but fail to respond. Now to be honest hearers of the Word are not necessarily superficial or casual in their approach to Scripture. They can be serious students of the Word. Your response to the Word—not your depth of study alone—is the issue with God. I once knew a gentleman who was very skilled in the Word of God knowledge wise. The Word however failed to bear fruit and to my knowledge the man never became acquainted with Christ. The fact is, some seminary professors or Sunday School teachers are not true believers. Some even write commentaries and other Bible reference works. Again your response to the Word—not your depth of study alone—is the issue with God. Despite the hearer's lingering look, he failed to respond and the image reflected in the mirror soon faded. Perhaps there's something God's Word is instructing you to do that you've been putting off. If so, delay no longer. Don't be a forgetful hearer! Welcome to H.C.C.
