WELCOME

One little boy's definition of Father's Day went like this: "Well, it's just like Mother's Day, only you don't spend so much." Us as fathers will concede that I think. This particular society has however attacked the male role so long many think fatherhood is obsolete. In the plan of God there is no such teaching. Fatherhood is critical for any society and a Godly perspective is most clearly needed in our society. For example God has ordained the father to be head of the home, loving his wife and children, leading his wife and children even to the point of sacrifice (Ephesians 5). Much of today's advice to Fathers comes, even in a Christian context is pretty much trivial. Much of today's instruction is to be a friend, listen to your son, go places with your son, take him to a ball game, have fun, follow their interests, etc., etc. The Word of God instructs us to teach our children deep things, raising children who in turn teach deep things to their children. What are those deep things you ask? Well it us the primary duty of a father. It is not what one little boy said: "The primary duty of my dad is to take out the trash. The primary duty of a father is not even to bring home the bacon or to fix what's broken. The primary of a duty of a father is to teach holy living to his children. Today we look at a few ways to get started. So happy Father's Day guys and
