

WELCOME 2-25-2024

In the last couple of weeks we have established the fact; Homosexuality is Sin, and that it deserves Judgment as does all sin. We also asked the question “is there hope for the Homosexual”? YES! Yes and today we explore the answer. We need to turn back to Paul’s words in 1 Corinthians 6 and conclude our thoughts on a hopeful note. We’ve already considered the condemnation he delivers in verses 9 and 10: “Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God.” Now for the good news: “Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God” (v. 11). The good news for homosexuals—and sinners of every stripe—is that God is able to forgive, redeem, and transform them. It’s His desire that they be saved—that they will be justified, sanctified, and washed of their sin and guilt, so that their homosexuality might be only part of their past, and that it may likewise be said of them that “such were some of you.” The great news, for all sinners, is that as long as there is breath in their lungs, there is still time to come Christ and turn from their sin. The church cannot afford to compromise. God’s people need to boldly speak the truth about sin, in order that we might speak the truth about the Savior who forgives. The cruelest thing we could do is neglect the truth and not warn the sinner of his or her fate without Christ! Welcome to H.C.C.
