

WELCOME 3-31-2024

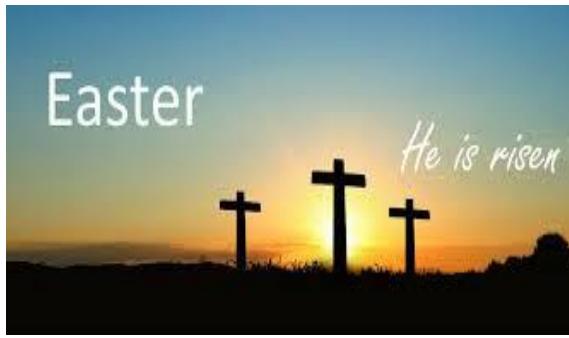

In Luke 23 we read these familiar words: "Father forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." (NIV) One man wrote "we are guilty, He is innocent. We are filthy, he is pure. We are wrong and he is right." Never were those truths more on display than they were when Jesus was on the cross. How Jesus, with a body wracked with pain, eyes blinded by his own blood, and lungs yearning for air, could pray for some heartless thugs is beyond our comprehension. Never, never has the world seen such love. If ever a person deserved a shot at revenge it was Jesus. Instead he prayed for their forgiveness. Instead of revenge he died for them, and for you, and for me. I don't know about you but for me all of my wounds seem rather insignificant. My grudges and hard feelings are childish in comparison. Jesus however wasn't on that cross for his own sins (He had none) he was on that cross for my sins and your sins and the sins of those who placed him there. The very thing, sin, which separates us eternally from his Father, the thing that brings eternal death. He died so we could live. However three days later "heaven unplugged the grave's power and you and I have nothing to fear. Death is disabled!"

Can someone say

"Oh what a Savior?"

Amen.

Welcome to HCC.
