

WELCOME 5-26-2024

Paul told the church at Colossi “Your life is hidden with Christ . . .” One man called it “Living the Risen Life”. I think he has a point. For example when it come to our witness (evangelism) before we can reach the world we witness to, we first have to leave the world we witness to. In John chapter 8 Jesus said, “Ye are from beneath; I am from above. Ye are of this world; I am not of this world.” In Romans 12 Paul said “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your spiritual worship. And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind.” I think it is clear that until a Christian, in his heart and his soul and his mind, has learned to live his spiritual life in the heavenlies, he will never be able to touch the earth with the truth of God. It just won’t happen. How exactly is this possible? The Chinese language has a great symbol for this truth. The word for righteousness is a combination of two pictures. On the top is a lamb. Beneath the lamb is a person. Isn’t that the essence of righteousness? The Lamb of God over the child of God. Whenever the Father looks down on you and me he sees his Son, the perfect Lamb of God. Keep seeking the things above where Christ is. Keep setting our mind on the things above and in the process we leave this world to live in the heavenlies so we may be able to reach the world for Christ. Welcome to HCC.
